

I wish to suggest that the FCC reject the petition of the NAB to deny access to XM radio to traffic reports. I pay a subscription to XM radio and especially like the traffic reports while traveling around the New York Metropolitan area. While commercial radio provides traffic intermittently, XM satellite radio has more complete information continuously 24 hours a day. This is especially helpful in deciding one's path through Manhattan from the suburbs. Please all XM Satellite radio to continue broadcasting this essential information.